

4 September 1953

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: PSB Meeting Held Wednesday, 26 August 1953

Present: General Smith, Messrs. Stassen, Jackson, Morgan and General Cabell

1. Increased Radio Facilities for U. S. Programming to China and Korea.

It was agreed that U. S. Information Administration go ahead with their tests to determine whether or not they can utilize the full power of the Okinawa station to reach Korea. In the event that this increased power should interfere with other Okinawa-based electronics, the power would be reduced immediately.

2. Handling of Chinese and North Korean Non-Repatriated Prisoners of War in Korea.

No important discussion or decision.

4. Other Business.

On the question of Albania, it was agreed that no further steps would be taken pending Under Secretary of State's raising of the question with the Prime Minister.
